

Dear Sirs:As a small market broadcaster I would like to go on record stating that these rules would hurt those in my position due to the cost of equipment and the man hours necessary to record and catalouge this programming. We do not have the economy of scale that some markets enjoy. In addition, I would like to say that I know of no small markets where indecency has been an issue. Perhaps a better solution would be to have syndicators and major metro markets record daily, or at random times. Or, if the FCC receives complaints perhaps it would be better if they did their own monitoring rather than let the fox guard the proverbial hen house.
